Armed Police

After passing through Old Windsor lock, we notice a big change from usual.

All along the Crown Estate bank there are armed police patrols, cctv cameras monitoring all river traffic, police patrol boats and Environment Agency boats.

Sounds threatening but it isn't at all.

All are in jovial spirits, waving at us, laughing and taking pictures of our cardboard cutouts.

Turns out, after the ceremony and reception, the Royal Party would go to Frogmore House which is a few hundred yards from the river bank !

4:00 pm

Arrival

We arrive in good time at the Racecourse Marina in Windsor.

We enjoy a lovely meal in GoGo's followed by Rum Chatas !

Then it's back to the boat for a good
